Yes there are several variations on the coin rules. We have one for our Association. As long as the basics stay the same they they can always be modified for our use. I believe we may have a 4 step limit :{D

Thought you might like to see what this site has for coin challenge rules.

Interesting thing is they don't mention any time limits only the number of steps one can take to retrieve the coin.?? Oh, well, I guess there must be multiple sets.
