I like it!

It would be for 2018 since we already have Dayton locked in.

I'd bring it up with Board & recommend Sue Fletcher make it a Ladies Meeting topic – might even get a couple of them on the 2018 Reunion Cruise Team :>)

BUT, if we're gonna go down that path, there are TONS of companies who do this kind of thing so the "Reunion Cruise" Team would need a good organizer to get 2-3 proposals from. That means they'd need to get some agreed criteria ahead of time (like weighted factors for length, departure port accessibility, number of others on the cruise, ability to host a separate Banquet, ability to host a Hootch room, cost, etc) There would likely not be as much of any kind of raffle/auction.

With the right organizer team – a GREAT option!

Dear Gus,

I got your name from The VFW magazine and notice you are in charge of your reunion. I was stationed on the USS Franklin D Roosevelt, CVA-42. In late 71, I was transferred to In Country in Viet Nam and stayed there until 1972. I am also a Member of the Evans, Colorado VFW Post #6624.

I know you have probably have your reunion planned for this year, but would love to help you out for next year's reunion.

Let me introduce myself, I'm Fred Dement, President of HUMPDAY CRUISES, INC., located in Greeley, Colorado. We have been a full service travel agency for 15 years and I am a "Group Cruise Specialist". We are a member of the Greeley Colorado Chamber of Commerce and the Northern Colorado Better Business Bureau.

The reason I am asking, I own a full service travel agency and specialize in group cruises. I would like to make a presentation to the board members of the group to see about doing a group cruise for the reunion in 2017/2018. There are several different ports that we would be able to sail out of including Los Angeles, Jacksonville, Orlando, Tampa, Miami, New Orleans, and Houston. Pricing for the cruise would start around $385 per person depending on the length of the cruise.

All Major Cruise Lines will also allow you meeting space for any events you might have scheduled.

If a cruise is not your cup of tea, let me assist you in doing your hotel, air fare and auto rental. We will be glad to help you on getting a meeting room and any other food events you would be interested in doing.

So if this is something that sounds interesting to you please let me know so I can make a formal presentation to the board. You can email or call me at 303.518.0855.

Looking forward to hearing back from you soon.

Fred Dement
